YOGENDRA SINGH GRENADIER

Today, on Republic Day, we honour them by bringing Bana Singh, Sanjay Kumar and Yogendra Yadav have today to life. Their stories are a testament to the valor of the Indian soldiers. These accounts are based in New Delhi.

The artwork has been created by Rishi Kumar, a well-known comic artist. Kumar has been instrumental in bringing the stories of these heroes to life. The comic strip is a tribute to the courage and heroism of these soldiers.

The stories of these heroes are set against the backdrop of the Kargil War of 1999. The war was fought in the Siachen Glacier, the world’s highest battlefield. The combatants were the Indian Army and the Pakistan Army. The war was fought for control of the Siachen Glacier, which is strategically important.

The comic strip tells the story of Bana Singh, Sanjay Kumar, and Yogendra Yadav. These soldiers were part of the Indian Army and were involved in the Kargil War. They were awarded the Param Vir Chakra, the highest military award in India.
